A REMARKABLE PUBLICATION. THE FEBRUARY NUMBER

Frank Leslie's SUNDAY MAGAZINE Is remarkable for the abundance and the varied character of its attractive features. It is impossible to convey, in an ordinary notice any idea of the richness of its con-tents, literary and artistic; we heartily commend it to those of our readers who desire to obtain a highly entertaining, instructive and edifying publication. The aim of the editor (Rev. Dr. Deems) is to inculcate morals and religion—not by dry, hard homilies, but by every style of literature, which can make the truth attractive and pleasing. Each number contains serial and short stories, essays, biographical sketches, poems, music, anecdotes, a sermon and a comprehensive miscellany mon, and a comprehensive miscellany abounding with valuable information and Nearly nine years ago, when there was not a Republican daily in a visit to that singular community, the Lebanon Shakers; it is very graphic and exceedingly interesting.
